STORY OF THE MASTERPIECE

MEET THE ORIGINALS Unique driving pleasure is our passion. As the co-driver of your vision, we will gradually weld you closer to your individual dream car and breathe new life into it in our Porsche factory.

A matching numbers EARLY 911S with a history that couldn't be better.

Who does not know the ESSES magazine, in which so many stories are written about the desired early Porsche 911S. Who does not know them, the Adam Wrights, and what their names are, who report in the U.S.A. about the barn finds and treasures that have long believed to be lost.

One of these vehicles that got a two-page story in ESSES magazine is this Porsche 911S in the special colour lemon yellow. A matching numbers Porsche that has been forgotten again and again before it finally returned to Germany in its original country of delivery.

Bought by a Munich doctor through Adam and Matt Wright, this Porsche 911S is currently in an early restoration stage.

We dismantled the vehicle, stripped the paint and completely overhauled the engine when we received the message that we should pause the project. For private reasons, the Munich doctor had to give up this project after he had received his Porsche 356B T6 Cabriolet from us. Now this rare Porsche 911S, delivered in a special colour, is looking for its new owner.

We are happy to restore the vehicle for you, but in case you want to take care of the matter yourself, go ahead. We deliver this icon without a restoration order as well.
